Mandarin Oranges

One of the sweetest fruits in the orange family, Mandarins are plump and heavy with juice, perfect for home or on the go. Originating in India, their name comes from the bright orange robes worn by the "Mandarins" of the ancient Chinese court. Peel off the top and roll down the thin skin and the bite-sized sections will easily separate. Sweeter and less acidic than larger Oranges, Mandarins are a real treat to eat.
Available mid-November through mid-April.
